This is one of my daughter's favorite books! We have three from this series and I would rank them: 1) My First Words (this book) 2) Tabbed Board Books: My First Farm: Let's Get Working! (TAB BOARD BOOKS) 3) My First Animals: Let's Squeak and Squawk (My First: Animals) (TAB BOARD BOOKS) (This I think will be excellent for slightly older kids, maybe 2+. As much as my daughter loves animals and they have been a number of her first words, the Animals book is quite a bit more advanced - if you're looking for a book for a 1 year old go with the First Words or Farm book) My daughter is 14 months now and we gave her My First Words for her 1st birthday. It has been perfect as she's been learning a ton of new words recently, and I think it will easily hold her attention at least through the next year as she continues to discover new things. We gave it to her because she had the My First Farm book from about 10 months and it's also one of her favorites. It is the first thing I grab for long car rides because we can spend a long time reading it. Some of the tabs correlate to other books in the series, which can be a pro or con depending on how many of the books you have. Everything on the farm page is in the Farm book, which is slightly redundant, but it's also nice to see which pages she likes and then we will probably buy the corresponding books when she gets older. (And she doesn't mind redundant... it's good for learning anyway.)

A fantastic first words picture book as it has bright and colorful photos that are engaging for babies and toddlers. This book has been one of my 21 month old son's favorite books for a while. If you get only one book from the DK Tabbed Board Book series, this is the one to get. The book is packed with first vocabulary and photos and each page covers a different topic: baby actions, clothing, furniture, food, animals, toys, vehicles, and other common objects as well as a small bit on colors, shapes, and numbers. Handwritten font type. My age range for this book is 9 months and older, or an early learning 6 month old. Under 6 months, the larger size might pose a challenge to infants. Continues to be of interest to older toddlers. Great book for learning to read some first words in handwritten letters. The DK My First Tabbed Board Books are: First Words Tabbed Board Books: My First Animals: Let's Squeak and Squawk! (Tab Board Books) Busy Day Tabbed Board Books: My First Things That Go: Let's Get Moving! (Tab Board Books) Tabbed Board Books: My First Numbers: Let's Get Counting! (Tab Board Books)

We have purchased a number of "first words" books, and this is my baby's favorite. It is a sturdy tabbed book containing 13 page pairs - each featuring a different theme (outlined below). There are plenty of pictures on each page, but not so many that they overwhelm the eye. Contains a very good cross-section of first words. Now it isn't perfect - it doesn't include some very basic words that I expect will be among my son's first (e.g. mommy/daddy/other family members, milk, hungry, sleep...), but it does have plenty of other very useful words that I expect will follow soon behind. And I guess it's understandable that some of those basic words might be hard to illustrate in a generic picture book (e.g. how to teach "mommy" without a specific picture of me)? So while I'll have to rely on other sources for some basic words, this book still teaches many other good words. The 13 themed page pairs are as follows, and include the following words as illustrative examples (note this is not a complete list of the words included - just an illustrative cross-section for flavor...):- All about me! (a.k.a. baby body parts and positions): head, arm, leg, eye, nose, mouth, sitting, lying down, walking...- Clothes & shoes: sweater, jeans, t-shirt, shorts, pajamas, hat, coat, shoes, socks, coat...- Around the house: clock, knife & fork, table, chair, cups, bed, sofa, phone, lamp, sink...- Food & drink: cereal, pasta, sandwich, juice, milk, carrots, peas, apple, grapes, tomato, orange, bananas, salad, bread, egg...- Pets: parrot, goldfish, pony, turtle, cat, dog, rabbits, guinea pigs...- Playtime: ball, toy animals, jigsaw puzzle, drum, dollhouse, doll, train, toy phone, stacking rings, cars, blocks, rocking horse...
