Customer Reviews

What is the book about? Capturing the purpose of youth ministry small groups. It's jam-packed with tips, thoughts, and reminders for effectively small group leadership. What do I think about it? It is SOLID! Every page has a can't-miss tip and discussion starter. What got me pumped up? The passion that this book has for explaining why we have small groups in youth ministry is incredible. It is wonderful to have a Bible verse tied to each of these thoughts and tips as well. What was deflating? Nothing! Except maybe knowing that we have to spread this resource to our whole team of volunteers! "So, would you recommend it?" Of course! This book should be in the hands of any youth leader who has small groups as a part of their ministry.

Good especially for those who are small group leaders for young people. I'm rereading it now and hope to implement some of these ideas this year.

I actually read the whole book in a day! It was very helpful and I recommend the book to others.
