Has American Christianity Failed?

Synopsis

American Christianity teaches the centrality of the individualâmy will, my experiences, my decision, my heart, my work, and my dedication. Yet we couldnât be more unaware that Christ and His saving and comforting work are being lost. Our minds and hearts are captivated in some way by those who often preach the Christian instead of Christ. Wolfmueller sounds the alarm against the false teaching and dangerous practices of Christianity in America. He offers a beautiful alternative: the sweet savor of the Gospel, which brings us to the real comfort, joy, peace, freedom, and sure hope of Christ. And itâs forÂ you.

Many churches in America are leaving their people starved and weak. The Gospel is preached for the sake of non-Christians, while Christians are fed a steady diet of law. After salvation the focus becomes the Christian life, "Now that you're a Christian, what are you going to do for Jesus?" is the common phrase you here from many pastors and teachers. The Gospel is placed on a shelf and the main focus of the Christian life becomes the individuals own experiences, work, and dedication to Christ."Has American Christianity Failed?" gives the alternative to the Law soaked, desperate, dry, tired, and anxious Christian, the absolutely free and "for you" Gospel, delivered to us through God's Word and Sacraments! I can honestly say, that this is one of the most refreshing, and encouraging books I have ever read. There was not one chapter that left me bored or wanting to rush through. I think every Christian will benefit greatly from reading this book. Here are a few of my favorite quotes from the book."American Christianity teaches the centrality of the individual, my will, my experiences, my decision, my heart, my work and dedicationâ€”to the detriment of Christ and His saving and comforting work. American Christianity most often preaches the Christian instead of the Christ, and our senses are so dulled that we donâ€™t even notice Heâ€™s missing." "The Gospel is the alternative to the pendulum of pride and despair. The Law says â€œdo,â€• the Gospel says â€œdone.â€• The Law commands; the Gospel promises. The Law measures and judges, the Gospel forgives. The Law tells us how we ought to live, the Gospel tells us that Jesus died; and He died with a marvelous and gracious purpose: to save sinners.
