Seraph Of The End, Vol. 9: Vampire Reign

Synopsis

After trumpets of the apocalypse proclaim the fall of humanity, vampires arise from the shadows to rule the earth. Yuichiro wants just one thing-to get revenge by killing each and every vampire. The attack on Nagoya continues! The Japanese Imperial Demon Army descends on the vampire nobles, aiming to exterminate them completely. The nobles fall one by one until vampire Crowley Eusford takes twenty human hostages. He aims to lure Guren out and capture him for information. Can Guren, Shinoa and Narumi squads work together to rescue the hostages and defeat Crowley and his minions?

I'm sorry but you can't have a good story without well written characters. So to the people thinking it's full of filler, they need to shut up. It's a important backstory to Guren and Yuu's relationship. I appreciated the break from the main plot and it just shows how much Yuu cares about his family. Really builds to the next volume. I just wish it was shown in the anime.

I love this series. I really do. It's one of the best recent manga I've read (along with My Hero Academia, etc.). For me, it's also very relatable, at least character wise. I can really relate to the main character, Yuichiro Hyakuya, because like him I experienced great pain earlier on in life (though maybe not as bad as his), and always wondered what my purpose was, until I finally found something to truly live for. And also, being in the post-apocalyptic setting that it is, it has a surprisingly strong theme of the importance of family, which is another thing I love about it. This volume itself is jam-packed with more of that than any of the previous volumes, and the Yu/Guren back story was a plus. So, I guess you could say I really relate a lot to the entire volume. Pick it up.

This series is really good! A post apocalyptic world where there are vampires, demons, and monsters around the corner. This volume left off with a cliffhanger....So can't wait for the next to know more of what will happen.
