Customer Reviews

Last Christmas I received a copy of Oswald Chambers’ classic devotional, My Utmost for His Highest. For years I neglected many devotional writings, perhaps due to a bad taste left in my mouth after trite, too-simple or poorly-written devotionals I’d come across growing up. But what depth I have found in the collections of the writings of saints like A.W. Tozer and now Oswald Chambers! These anthologies indeed are worthy to bear the name “Christian literature.” My experience in the last few months of reading Chambers has been transformational, and the book’s introduction, by Richard C. Halverson, sums up why. He says: “In Chambers I am constantly being reminded that the ground of faith and experience is the person of Jesus Christ.....the basis of faith is always Jesus Christ himself. Through the years Chambers has kept me on course by bringing me back to Jesus. Believing Jesus, not just believing my beliefs about Jesus, is basic.” I have collected some brief quotations from the daily readings which echo this basic theme that runs through Chambers’ texts. It is about Jesus Himself--believing Him, being devoted to Him. * "When we become advocates of a creed, something dies; we do not believe God, we only believe our belief about Him.... 'Believe also in Me,' said Jesus, not--'Believe certain things about Me.'" (Apr 29)  "A man with the vision of God is not devoted to a cause or to any particular issue; he is devoted to God Himself." (May 2)  "My goal is God Himself, not joy nor peace, nor even blessing, but Himself, my God." (July 12)  "The soul is in danger when knowledge of doctrine outsteps intimate touch with Jesus." (Aug 16)  "Are you more devoted to your idea of what Jesus wants than to Himself?
